Residentie B-Blocks phase I

Residence B-Blocks phase II is located near the centre of Beringen and offers 44 newly built apartments across several buildings (W1-5, block 1, block 2 and block 3). The new construction project 'B-Blocks' is located at the former National Police premises at the Koerselsesteenweg and Sint-Catharinastraat in Beringen. The name alludes to the new stylish apartment blocks that will soon be built there. In addition, the developer is planning to build five family dwellings, two commercial premises and an underground car park. The project will be built around a communal park. The B-Blocks comprise: W1-5: the police barracks will be converted into 5 new linked houses K1: 1 office space Block 1: conversion of the police accommodation into apartments, 10 units Block 2: newly constructed apartments: 12 units Block 3: residential tower with newly build apartments and commercial space: 17 residential units, 1 commercial space Block 4: new build apartments: 12 units Block 5: new build apartments: 14 units
